CHURCH PICNIC

Don't forget our church picnic on Saturday, June 5 at the Leeds Historical Park. The Historical Park is Highway 119 River. There there but if not, side of the little bridge. This is a lovely shaded area with a pavilion and picnic tables. We will start to gather at 11:30. Bring lawn chairs to relax in. The church is providing the meat and a sign-up sheet is in the kitchen for you to sign-up to bring side dishes and desserts. Please call the church office (699-8463) and leave a message with the number attending. If it is raining we will meet at the church. See you on Saturday!

church picnic on Saturday, Leeds Historical Park. The the smaller park right on bordered by the little Cahaba should be enough parking you can park on the other Cahaba and walk across the WORSHIP: The worship committee always needs volunteers to help greet, take up the offering, prepare communion or be a lay reader. If you would like to help please let me know and I will add you to our list of volunteers.

MISSIONS: Thank you for your response to our plea for Peanut Butter for the Leeds Welfare during the month of May. Please bring whatever food or paper items you wish. We started our CANpaign May 23rd for Presbytery and will continue until July. The items we collect will still be given to the Leeds Welfare and we are keeping track of total collections and reporting to the Presbytery.

We cooked and served the ladies at First Light on May 2nd. Thanks Spurgeon for your help. We are scheduled to serve there again July 25th. Please call me, 699-6276, and volunteer to help!

LPC has been one if the sponsors for Felicia Cooper in Mexico. She has been working with children to learn about God. Felicia will not be staying in Mexico when her commitment to CFCI is over. Instead of staying for another year she will come back to Birmingham to see what God is planning for her. Until June 27th her mailing address is: ADPO 23 ; Fresnillo, Zacatecas, Mexico 99000.

COMMUNITY: The city of Leeds and the Leeds Arts Council will sponsor free concerts in the Leeds Historical Part at 6:00 p.m. On June 5th and June 12th. Plan to bring your picnic basket and blanket or chairs and spend the evening with friends under the Leeds stars.
